3. LinkedIn About section

I'm Brooke Lyn Landon, an entrepreneur who owns and operates a pet sitting business. My work brings together hands-on pet sitting and the responsibilities of business ownership.

As a pet sitter, I provide the care at the heart of my business. As its owner, I am also responsible for running it. Both roles are central to my professional identity, and together they describe what I do: I'm a pet care professional and an entrepreneur.

[Pet care approach - confirm before using: I take time to understand each pet's routines and their owner's instructions. I approach pet sitting with patience and attention, and I value clear communication with the people who entrust their pets to me.]

My business is a way for prospective clients to connect directly with the person who owns it and does the pet sitting. I also welcome connections with fellow entrepreneurs and other professionals.

Please connect with me or send a message to learn more about my business or inquire about pet sitting services.
